

(These should be cut out individually so that students need to position the scotomata appropriately on the fields test and they can place the damage appropriately on the pathway too)